YOUNG EGOR

The Sad Princess and the Foolish Prince

by THE BROTHERS REALLY-GRIMM

Once upon a time there was a very sad princess. She wanted to be happy, like the princesses she had read about in story-books. One day she was walking in the forest, when she saw a sad-looking frog.

'Perhaps he is a prince, turned into a frog by a magic spell,' she thought. 'I shall kiss him and release him from the spell, and he will marry me and we'll live happily ever after.'

But when she kissed the frog, it turned into a giant, slaving Nargle-beast!

'Save me, save me!' cried the princess.

A prince from a nearby kingdom was riding in the forest. Hearing the princess crying, he rode to her aid, and slew the beast with an arrow to the head.

'My hero!' thought the sad princess. 'Now that handsome prince will marry me, and I'll have a happy ending after all!' But as the Nargle-beast toppled to its doom, its tail landed on the sad princess, squashing her flat.

It was a sad time for everyone, including the foolish young prince, who was imprisoned for making a tasteless remark at the funeral of the princess. He was silly enough to say: 'Well, at least she had a furry-tail ending!'
